You will be redirected..

View of the page « Files ».

Once your file is sent, transcription will run automatically. During the few minutes of loading, in which you can focus on other work, you can follow the transcription progress in real time.
 Duration of operation: depending on volume, length and quality of the sequence.
 An email informs you of the availability of your file.

Click on the file's name when the statut is "Finish". Then, you enter in the online editor of Authôt application :

The user interface is divided into three parts

1) The top menu : it allows the layout. You will also find the buttons to save, export and align.

2) The transcription : Text is synchronised with audio. When you click on a word, it is underlined in orange and allows you to navigate into the audio player. It saves time for correction and verification of your file. Once transcription corrected, do not forget to save your work.

3) The bottom bar: This is the audio player of your file. It is possible to change the playback speed (ex: -50% = slower, + 10% = faster) but also to browse the file (ex: +/- 2sec).

Tip: Use the Esc key of your keyboard to Play or Pause the audio player, and F1 for -10% slower, F2: +10% faster

4th step : Dispose of your transcription in the format of your choice

If you encounter a synchronization problem between your text and the corresponding audio, the alignment feature in the top bar is available.

Tip: If you already have all the transcription corrected or a part of it, you can copy-paste your text in the online editor and click on Align.

Once your work is finished, you can export it to your desktop in different formats (text for Word, subtitles for a video ...).

Choose your format and click on « Export »

5th step : Your personal Authôt account
